

PEACE INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

EXPERIENTIAL

LEARNING

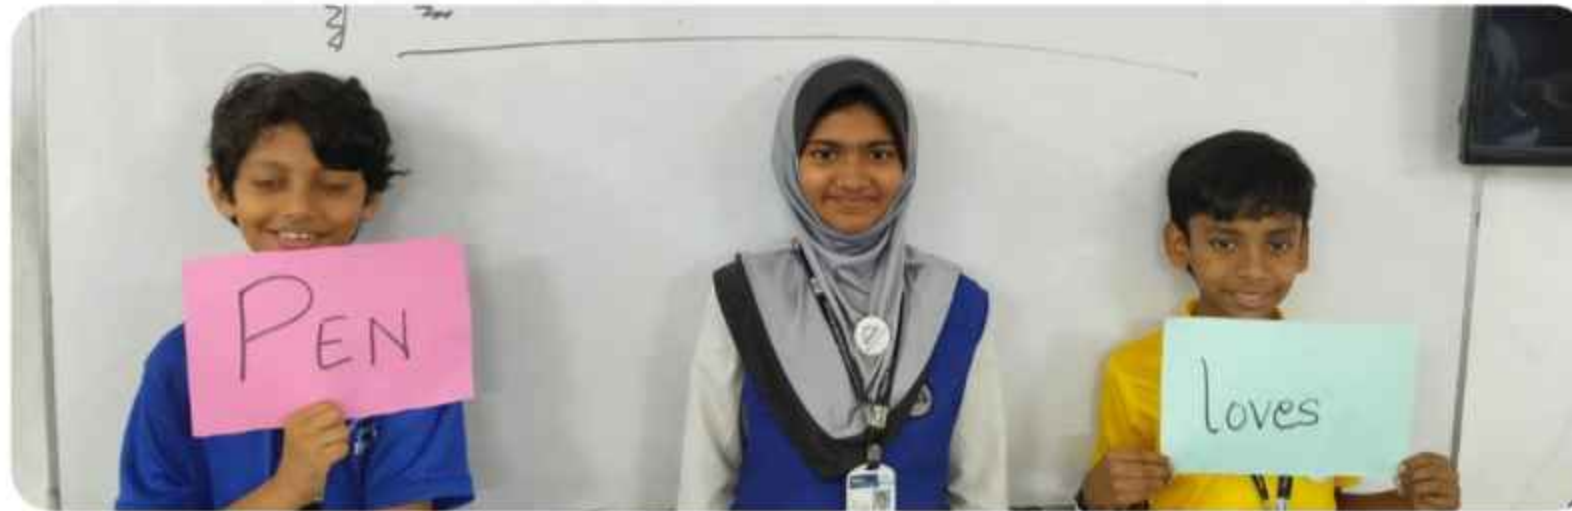

JANUARY

GRADES 4 TO 8

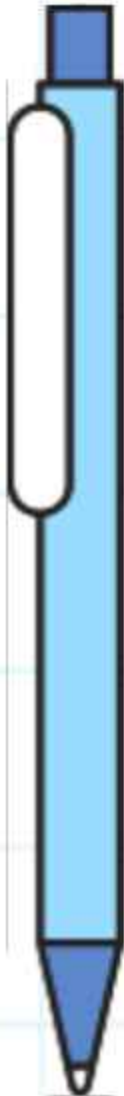

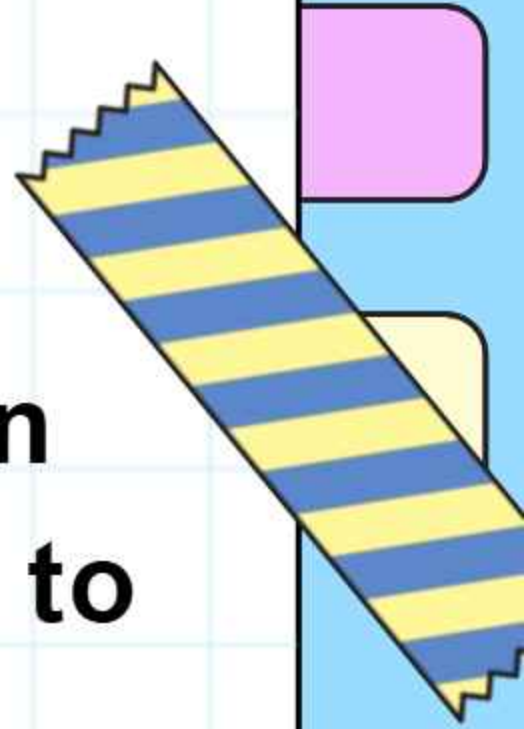

PERSONIFICATION

Grade 4 A

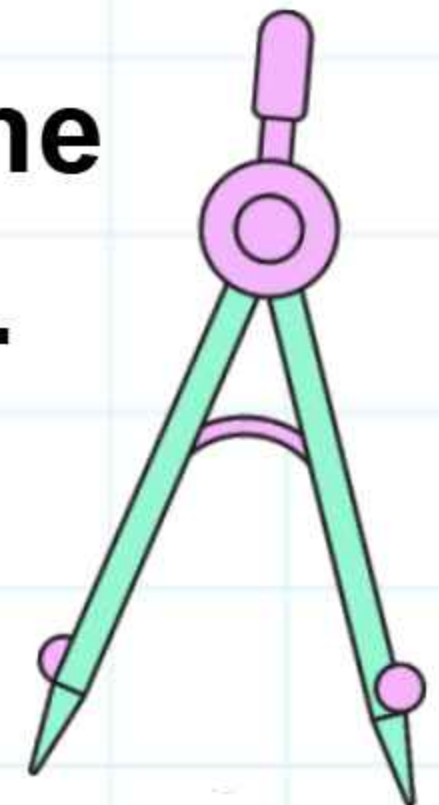

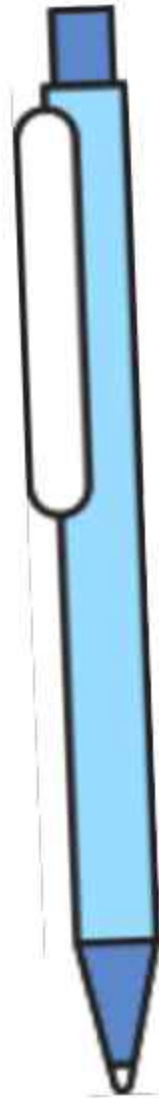

By attributing human actions and emotions to non-human things, personification helps readers visualize scenes more vividly and imagine the story's atmosphere.

PERSONIFICATION

Grade 4 B

When an object is personified, readers can empathize with it, creating a deeper emotional connection to the story or poem.

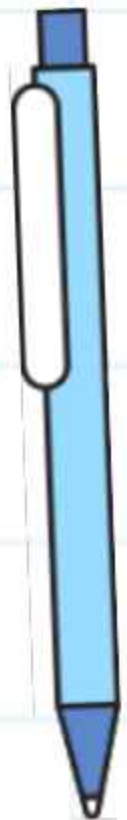

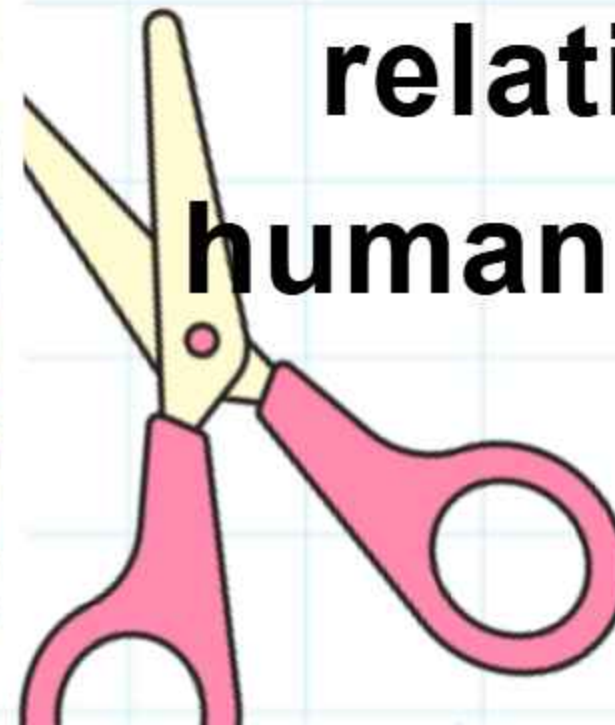

PERSONIFICATION

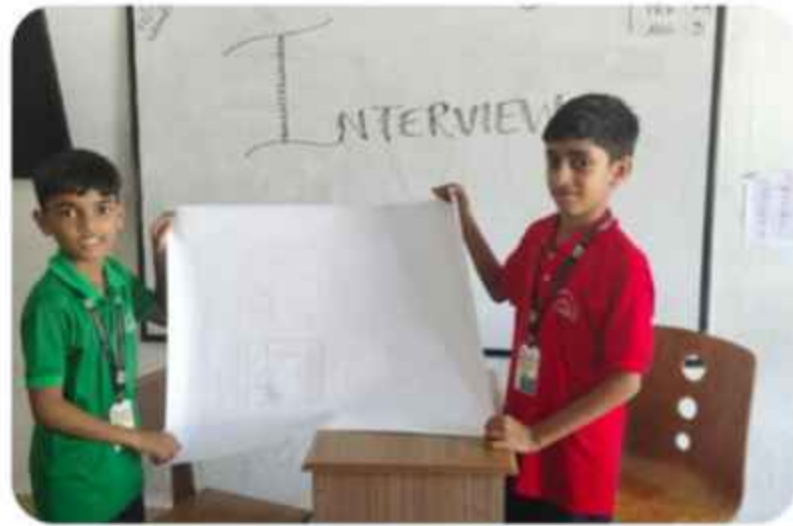

Grade 4 C

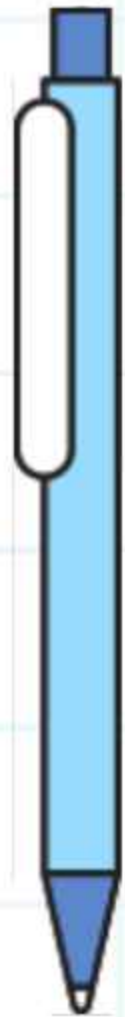

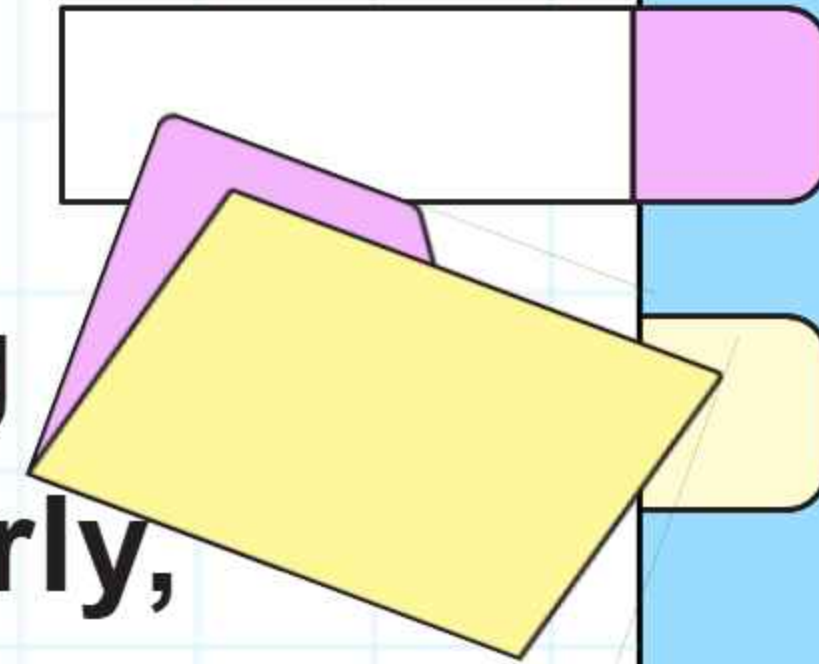

Personification can be used to convey complex ideas or abstract concepts by relating them to human experiences.

Experiencing Interview - Role Play Grade 5 A

Articulating thoughts clearly,
actively listening,
using appropriate
vocabulary, and maintaining a professional tone.

Experiencing Interview - Role Play Grade 5 B

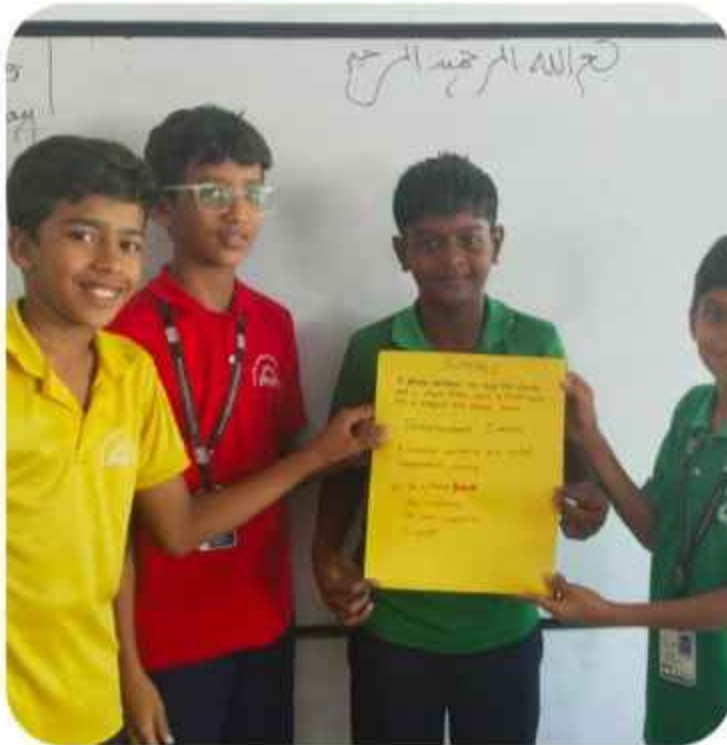

Analyzing interview questions, formulating thoughtful responses, and tailoring answers to the specific job requirements.

SIMPLE COMPOUND AND COMPLEX SENTENCE STRUCTURE

Grade 6 A

Understand the different structures of sentences by identifying independent and dependent clauses, allowing students to differentiate between these sentence types and use them appropriately to vary their writing style and express complex ideas effectively.

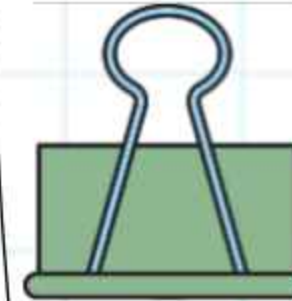

Grade 6 B

“Grammar explorers: discovering simple, compound, and complex sentences!”

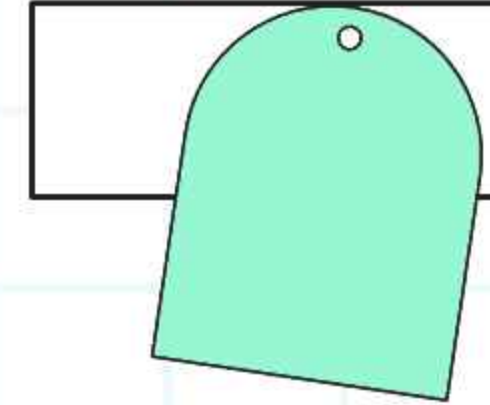

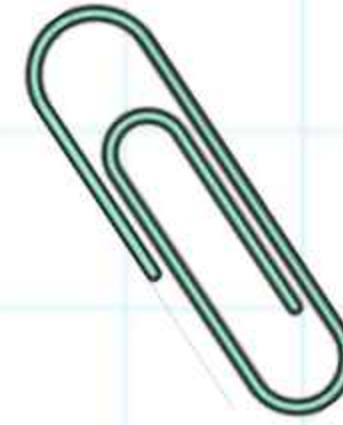

Grade 7 A

"Merging meanings:
the clever world of portmanteaus!"

It helps to develop a better understanding of word formation and
linguistic patterns.

Grade 7 B

"Unpacking portmanteaus: where words meet and merge!"

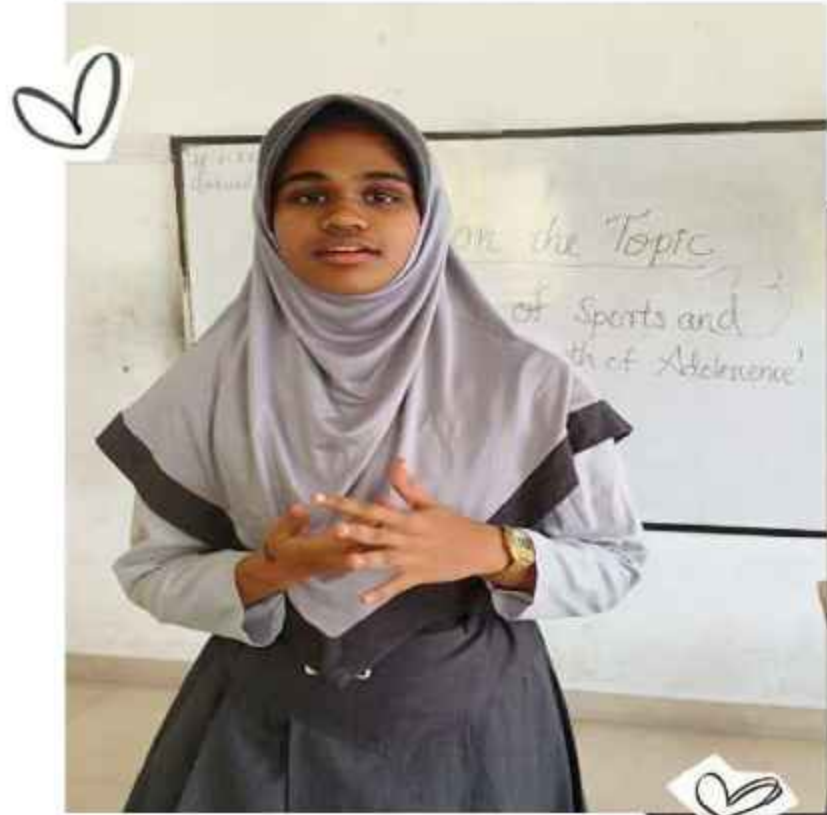

It helps to enhance appreciation for literature and poetry that employ portmanteau words.

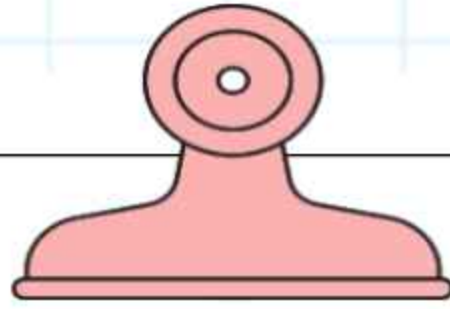

Grade 8 A

WHATEVER IS WORTH DOING IS WORTH DOING WELL.

"Unleashing the power of voice, unleashing the power of change": Encourage listeners to participate in sports, highlighting the benefits and positive impact on physical and mental well-being.

Grade 8 B

"Speech that sparks conversation, ignites action": To encourage the audience to include and accept specially abled people in all aspects of life.

Thank
You